Pre - Tour Option - Day 1 – Tuesday - September 13 - Lima

Arrival in Lima. Transfer to our centrally located hotel near the best shops, restaurants and parks in Miraflores, “the city of flowers”. Overnight Miraflores.

Day 2 - Wednesday - Sept 14 - Ica

Early morning bus transport to Ica via the Pan American Highway. We will travel through the coastal region of Central Peru, a land of exotic animals, mysterious mummies, historic wineries and alien desert landscapes. Ica is a picturesque colonial town, which is famous for its sunny climate all year round. Overnight Ica Hotel. (B)

Day 3 - Thursday - Sept 15 - Ica

Ica. Visit to Dr. Cabrera Museum, which houses more than 11,000 enigmatic carved stones depicting themes ranging from dinosaur “farms” to cranial surgery. If time permits, we will also visit the Muse Historico Regional with its display of mysterious “alien”-looking skulls. Overnight Ica. (B).

Day 4 - Friday - Sept 16 - Total Lunar Eclipse

Bus Transport to Nazca. Visit to Maria Reiche and Nazca Museums, home of the “alien” skulls and land of a 1,000 mummies. *Optional flight over the Nazca Lines to be arranged on site. Maria Reiche was the famous archaeologist who spent her entire life studying and mapping the Nazca lines. This little gem of a hotel is the perfect spot for lunar eclipse watching. Dinner & Overnight Maria Reiche Hotel/ Nazca. (B).

Day 5 - Saturday - September 17

Return bus transport to Lima. After a long travel day, dinner and rest at our Miraflores Hotel. Overnight Lima. (B)

MAIN GROUP ARRIVES IN LIMA

Day 1 - Sunday - September 18

Dinner and Orientation with Mary & Amaru (depending on flight arrivals). Overnight Miraflores.

Day 2 - Monday – September 19 - Lima

Lima City tour of main historic square including the Cathedral of San Francisco with its reliquary, crypt and scriptorium/library. Afternoon visit to Huaca Pucllana (Inca archaeological site) for late lunch at 5-star restaurant onsite. Overnight Lima. (B)

Day 3 – Tuesday -September 20 - Sacred Valley

Morning flight from Lima to Cusco, the sacred city of the Incas. After arriving at Cusco airport, we have private transport to our beautiful garden sanctuary hotel in the heart of the Sacred Valley. Dinner and evening orientation with Mary and Amaru. Overnight Sacred Valley. (B)

Day 4 - Wednesday- September 21 - Sacred Valley - Pisac

Today we visit Pisac Market, the largest (and most colorful) Inca market in the area noted for its traditional weavings, hand-made jewelry, and indigenous artifacts. Pisac is also famous for the amazing agricultural terraces surrounding the city. Lunch at Pisac Market. Optional hike with Amaru to the Sun Temple. If time permits, afternoon tour of Moray's enormous circular terraces. Overnight Sacred Valley. (B)

Day 5 - Thursday- September 22 – Sacred Valley – Spring Equinox

We spend the first day of Peruvian spring at the impressive Inca site of Ollaytaytambo with its massive Sun Temple (often called the South American Baalbek). This amazing site is also reminiscent of the ancient Egyptian stone masonry found at the Giza plateau. Shamanic Water blessing/ healing ceremony for the Mother Earth at the temple baths of the “Virgins of the Sun”. Later this evening, there will be time for private healing sessions/reading with Amaru for those who have booked in advance. Overnight Sacred Valley. (B)

Day 6 – Friday - September 23 – Machu Picchu

We transfer from our hotel to the Ollaytaytambo train station. From here we continue on our journey to Aguas Calientes (named after the hot springs there) and Machu Picchu passing through some of the most spectacular scenery in Peru. Lunch in Aguas Calientes with time for exploring this town at the foot of Machu Picchu and the Hiram Bingham Museum. Overnight Aguas Calientes. (B)

Day 7 – Saturday - September 24

Full day at Machu Picchu, the “lost city” of the Incas and recently named as one of the 7 Wonders of the World. Amaru will guide us through the main power spots and temples of the Crystal City, while Mary will explain the astrological and astronomical signatures found here, as well as the connections between the Ancient Egyptian and Incan cosmologies. Overnight Aguas Calientes. (B)

Day 8 – Sunday - September 25 - Cusco

We return to Cusco on the first class Vistadome train. Cusco was the main capital city of the Inca Empire, built in the shape of a Puma. Cusco City is a fantastic feast of color, sounds and textures. Musicians, artists and local vendors fill the streets 24 hours a day making the history of this magical city come alive. After check-in, we will enjoy a relaxing dinner at our hotel. Overnight Cusco. (B)

Day 9 – Monday - September 26 – Cusco

Exploring Cusco city. We visit the famous Korikancha, Sun Temple, the spiritual center of the Inca Empire and walk through the cobbled streets once inhabited by the Virgins of the Sun and Inca rulers. Mary will explain the archaeological correlations between Korikancha and the Valley Temple of Giza. The sights and sounds of Cusco are unforgettable as musicians, shamans, lamas and vendors fill the streets music and color. Overnight Cusco. (B)

Day 10 – Tuesday - September 27]

We spend the day exploring the amazing site of Sacsayhuaman and its megalithic structures; afterwards we visit Qenko, the pre-Incan ceremonial cave devoted to the Great Mother or Pacha Mama and mysterious site of Puka Pukara. Afternoon free for exploring Cusco’s many artists’ & handicrafts markets. Group dinner. Overnight Cusco. (B)

Day 11 – Wednesday - September 28
